Christmas Seal Sale Lags In Crawford County

Christmas Seal giving in Crawford County is $180 short of reaching the 1964 campaign goal for the area, it was reported today.

Robert A. Batdorf of Traverse City, Publisher of the Traverse City Record-Eagle and a member of the board of trustees of the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, said that thus far residents of the county have contributed $601.

"Throughout the state, there has been an increase in Christmas Seal giving and for this all of us dedicated to continue the fight against tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases are grateful," Mr. Batdorf said.

BITS O' TALK

Mike Lovely arrived home from Ferris State College weekend before last to spend some time with his parents, the Leo Lovelys. He is attending a ski instructor's school at Boyne Mountain since his return, and expects to do some instruction both at Boyne and at the Grayling park.

Mr. and Mrs. James Klein are the parents of a second son, Barry James, born November 24th and weighing 9 lbs. 2 oz. His grandparents are the Lyle Whipples of Morestown and the Robert Kleins.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McEvers and Patsy, and Mrs. Edna McEvers visited the latter's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Korolden in Pontiac Thursday and Friday of Thanksgiving week.

A watch, the perfect gift. Lay away now for Christmas. From $10.95. Davis Jewelry.

Mrs. Marion Burch left Thursday morning to visit her son in Ypsilanti after spending some time here at the A. J. Joseph home. Miss Margaret Joseph and her sister Mrs. Martha Freeman of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, arrived Thursday to stay at the Joseph home and visit their brother, Abraham, who has been in Mercy Hospital for three weeks.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thompson Sunday, the 6th, were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Piazza and four children of Traverse City.

The Ray Carricks have had their outside Christmas decorations up all the past week. Santa gives a friendly wave as you drive by.

Karen Gothro arrives home Friday from CMU, Mt. Pleasant, for the Christmas vacation.

To Close Some Freeway Rest Areas

LANSING — Five of eight Freeway Safety Rest Areas on US-27 and I-75 between Houghton Lake and the Mackinac Bridge will be closed Saturday until next spring, the State Highway Department announced today.

Heavy snowfall in the area makes it difficult to keep the drive-ways and parking lots open during the winter months.

The three Rest Areas which will remain open all winter include:

- One each on north and southbound I-75 at Grayling.
- One on northbound I-75 at Topinabee.

Rest room and telephone service as well as tourist information will be available for north and southbound I-75 traffic at the Mackinaw City Tourist Information Center, all winter except for a two month period beginning January 23rd.

Rest Areas to be closed for the winter include:

- One each on north and southbound US-27 at Houghton-Lake.
- One each on north and southbound I-75 at Gaylord.
- One on southbound I-75 at Hebron, about nine miles south of the Mackinac Bridge.

Twenty-eight other Safety Rest Areas on freeways throughout the state also will be kept open all winter.

Mrs. Ernest Borchers and Don returned home Tuesday of last week after spending ten days with her daughter and family, the John Sojkas, in Rochester. They had accompanied them there after the Sojkas spent Thanksgiving here.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Root and daughter Ellen spent a few days in Roseville last week.

Mrs. Kip Papendick was hostess to the Bunco Club December 3rd. Mrs. Byron Randolph was high. Mrs. Walter SanCartier second and Mrs. Matt Edson low. The penny prize went to Mrs. Clare Madsen, Sr. The ladies meet next this Thursday at Shoppenagons Motor Hotel for their annual Christmas dinner, then will gather at the Randolph home afterwards for Bunco.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hawkins picked up her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hanson in Mancelona Saturday and took them to Traverse City for the day. Mrs. Hawkins was in Gaylord on business Wednesday of last week.

Jack Mason will be home Friday from Cranwell School, Lenox, Mass., to visit his parents, the Jack Masons, over the Christmas holidays. He will fly in to Detroit.

Mike Roberts will be home from CMU, Mt. Pleasant, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roberts Friday.

Gary DuBois of CMU will be home Friday to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick DuBois.

Our Annual Pre-inventory Sale starts now, ends at Christmas, when we close for the season. Everything reduced. Weaver's Gift Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bendig and children spent the weekend in Clarkston and Inkster, going to have an early Christmas celebration with his mother, Mrs. Alma Bendig.

Bill Moshier arrived home last weekend from Houghton Tech to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moshier.

CHRISTMAS DECORATING HINTS

BY DAVID D. OLSON
County Extension Director

During the Christmas season many homeowners accidentally create serious fire dangers by using unsafe lighting. Make indoor and outdoor lighting safe and you will enjoy the decorations knowing they are fire and shock proof. Whether you purchase ready-made decorations or design and wire your own, the basic precautions apply.

Be sure cords have waterproof sockets and connections. Drape connections over a wood spike to keep them above ground and out of snow and slush. Wrap insulated tape around each connection to keep it dry.

Turn the power OFF before working on lighting equipment — even when replacing a bulb — when you are standing on damp ground.

Use only outdoor-type rubber-covered extension cords and weather proof lighting strings approved by the Underwriters' Laboratories. Lighting strings made in the United States with the U. L. approval may be a little more expensive, but the additional cost at purchase time for the guarantee of safe wiring may mean saving your home from fire.

In the use of indoor lighting, be certain not to overload electrical circuits. Follow safety suggestions as to the correct number of bulbs to use on one outlet. Use of an excessive number of Christmas tree lights on one circuit can be a costly mistake.

The use of electric lights on aluminum Christmas trees is not recommended, and of course candles on a tree is a thing of the past.

Christmas trees should be standing in some type of water filled container to prevent excessive drying and the tree should not be placed directly in front of heating ducts.

Make your Christmas a safe and sensible joyous occasion.

What's Ahead . . .

In the aftermath of every election comes a time of intense analysis and speculation. The decisions and attitudes expressed by the voters are minutely scrutinized and graphed, all the way from Washington to the local communities. The statistical charts pile higher and higher, and become the source materials for politicians, political scientists and historians of the future. Then, along with this, more or less educated guesses are made as to what may be expected of the government in power. That is going on now. And some interesting facts, along with many anticipations, are its product.

This election demonstrated that there is less and less party regularity and more and more ticket splitting. Thus, despite the President's landslide vote in California, the U. S. Senate seat at stake went to a Republican who was given scant chance when the campaign began. The President carried Oregon with ease, but the Republicans gained control of the state House of Representatives for the first time in years and maintained control of the state's Board of Control. So it went, in numbers of states throughout the nation. The President's coattails were broad enough to carry many of his adherents into office but not all of them by any means. Here in Michigan, Governor Romney's big win, was in contrast to the President's wide margin in the state.

Just about everyone is sure that in the immediate time ahead the Administration's main energies must be given to foreign affairs. The list of trouble spots around the world grows, with Viet Nam at the top. Reports that the new Soviet government is supplying large quantities of modern weapons to satellites and hoped-for satellites is the cause of deepening concern. The preservation of NATO is a first order of business. Belief that a strengthening of policy is needed grows, and it is bipartisan in nature.

In the realm of domestic policy, as it will be blue-printed to the next Congress, the speculations are frequently contradictory. One school thinks that the President's margin was so large and Democratic control of Congress, particularly the House, so complete, that Mr. Johnson will be able to write his own ticket, right down to such intensely controversial programs as Medicare. But history tells us that Congress is often extremely jealous of its prerogatives, powers and independence and that Presidents have learned this to their cost. The classic example is the Roosevelt Supreme Court packing bill. The President had been elected by a huge margin, the Democratic edge in Congress was overwhelming. He threw all his influence behind the bill. Yet he lost, and a lasting bitterness within and without Congress resulted. Some historians think that, because of this, Mr. Roosevelt might have been beaten in the subsequent election had it not been for the coming of the war and the "Don't rock the boat" attitude it produced among great numbers of people.

Then there is the character of Mr. Johnson himself. His undeviating stress has been on unity. This was so during the campaign and it has been true since. He clearly wants to alienate as few people as possible. So a good many writers forecast, it may be that he will move slowly and be willing to accept compromises in order to advance the unity concept. If that is the case—and we will have to wait and see—there will be few major surprises.

Another point deserves mention. Fear of more inflation is on the rise once more. This in itself could be a powerful restraining influence on both the Executive and the Legislative branches.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

December 18, 1941

With the declaration of war with Japan, Germany and Italy, defense work starts right out in real earnest. A public mass meeting was held at Legion hall last week Thursday night, at which time plans and arrangements were made for the organization of a Crawford County Defense Council, to aid and assist the county Red Cross chapter and for general defense work. Mrs. C. G. Clippert, chairman of the county Red Cross chapter, announced that while there is still a deficit in the amount pledged for the annual roll call, that the National Council of Defense is now calling for funds for defense work. The quota assigned Crawford county for defense work is $800 and that amount is needed quickly as possible. Harold MacNeven has been appointed chairman of the county defense council, with Alfred Hanson and Clarence Johnson, also to serve on the committee.

After officially going on record as determined to change the regulations that this season permitted the killing of doe and fawn deer for camp use, the conservation commission has asked Director P. J. Hoffmaster to assemble all facts about the operation of the law for the attention of state legislatures, at the expected special session. Hoffmaster denounced abuses of the camp deer law after a tour through the deer hunting territory at the height of the deer season, when he saw instances of "flagrant disregard of the intent of the law" and learned from conservation officers of "imaginary" deer camps set up just to get meat to take home. He has urged repeal of the camp deer provision entirely, as no longer necessary with modern transportation and market facilities available throughout the deer country. Expressing the belief that the legislature has operated as it did—boosting the sale of camp permits from 700 to about 20,000 or 25,000—many observers seem confident that the legislators will take the first opportunity to alter the 1941 act.

Much interest is again being stirred up in South Branch township by the rival oil companies who are seeking leases on all land near the South Branch ranch. At least the Turner Oil Company of Mt. Pleasant sends out courteous salesmen.

Miss Naomi Fowler was called back to work at the Lapeer County Hospital last Saturday. She had been helping care for her father, William Fowler, since November 16th.

Whooping cough seems to be all the rage here in Frederic. A number of cases.

Kathryn Charron of C. M. U., Mt. Pleasant, was home visiting her parents over the weekend.

A few friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Melroy dropped in Friday night, December 12, to help them celebrate their second wedding anniversary. Progressive Pedro was played, and prizes awarded. Afterwards a potluck lunch was served. They received some nice presents.

The Lovells Ladies club met with Mrs. C. Stillwagon, honoring Mrs. Ruth Caid's birthday. A lovely dinner was served and plans discussed for the Christmas tree and supper to be held Monday December 21st at 6:30. This is an annual affair in Lovells township and all are looking forward to it with keen pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galloway are happy over the birth of a son, Michael Patrick, December 15th at Mercy Hospital.

Otto Failing, Lewis Dorman and Eugene Irwin, who are hunting wildcats, have succeeded in shooting three this week.

Miss Florence Butler is leaving Saturday for Dearborn to visit her father William Butler Sr., and other relatives over Christmas.

Mrs. Elsie Rasmussen will leave Monday to be gone over the holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanson spent Friday and Saturday in Saginaw visiting relatives. Miss Caroline

Welch and nephew Mickey Hanson turned with them to visit Miss Welch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welch.

A telegram from Major R. E. Bates, stationed at Pearl Harbor, Manila, to his sister Mrs. Hermann, said that he was well and safe.

Announcements have been received from Mr. and Mrs. George V. Craig of Birmingham telling of the birth of twin daughters to them on November 29th. Judith Ann weighed 5 pounds 6 1/2 ounces and Susan Kay 4 pounds, 15 1/2 ounces. The mother, who was formerly Mary Mahucke and is well known here, was a twin herself.

Wesley Sammons of Lansing is visiting his mother, Mrs. Ella Sammons.

Mrs. Ben Yoder of Lansing had the misfortune to fall Friday at her home and break her right arm.

Mrs. William Hill received a cable from Mr. Hill, who is over in Hawaii, telling her that he and the two boys are well and OK.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Alma of Frederic are happy over the arrival of a son, born Tuesday evening. The baby weighs 9 pounds and 6 ounces.

Mrs. Harry Sorenson entertained the members of her Bunco club last week Wednesday evening at Zuel's. There were 12 present. Lunch was served in the private dining room.

Willard Garred, student minister from the Grand View Theological Seminary Des Moines, Iowa, will arrive in Grayling Saturday to serve the Grayling Lutheran church until after the first of the year.

Festoons of vari-colored lights and a community tree at the intersection of Michigan and Peninsula avenues tells us that the yuletide is in our midst. This is the City's contribution to the holiday festivities.

The City Council is considering an ordinance prohibiting overnight parking in the city streets. This is to make the street more easily cleaned of snow in early mornings. In that way the snow may be scraped from the sides into the centers of the streets and hauled away. Seems like a good idea.

Wonderful way to communicate the Christmas spirit

Nothing speaks so well of your thoughtfulness as a bright little STARLITE® phone for someone in your family. It's especially convenient for the bedroom because it has a dial that glows in the dark for easy dialing, and comes in a variety of decorator colors. We made the STARLITE phone easy to use, too. Take one home now to put under the tree, and we'll install it right after the holidays.

Another nice thought—spread the spirit of Christmas and New Year's by phoning faraway friends and relatives. And make those calls a day or two ahead of the Holiday, when folks have more time for relaxed conversation.

Legion Auxiliary News

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 106 held its regular business and Christmas party at the Legion Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 8th. There were 27 senior members and one guest, Mrs. Isaac Gendron, and 3 junior members.

Three new members' applications were read and accepted and will take their obligation at the January meeting. The Auxiliary will fill stockings for the children's Christmas party Monday, Dec. 21, the party to be held Dec. 23rd.

The Auxiliary ladies were nicely entertained between the business and social meetings by the Twilight Twirlers. The Twirlers put on a twenty-minute program with Monica Stephan and Nancy Brown presenting a solo each. The committee would like to thank all the girls and their leader, Mrs. Darla Lippard at this time. A very nice salad and dessert lunch was then served by chairman Iris LaChapelle, Clara Sorenson, Boots Balch, Helen Nielson, Hattie Worden, Lilian Ryan, Phyllis Thompson and Betty Leslie. After lunch the ladies were all given a gift. The hall and tables were decorated beautifully in the Christmas motif. The next meeting will be business meeting, Tuesday, Jan. 12th, 1965. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all the Auxiliary members.

BITS O' TALK

Mrs. Bud Gould and children Sally, Bill and Rickey, were in Big Rapids Sunday for a Christmas celebration with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baumunk and sister, Miss Eleanor. They were joining there by Mr. Gould's mother, Mrs. Peter Van Male of Cedar Springs.

The Fraser Deans moved Sunday into their new home at 102 West Drive in North Park subdivision.

The J. L. Martins have received word of the death of Fred Galbraith, 71, who made his home at the Veterans' Center, Los Angeles, California, following a heart attack on December 9, 1964. Mr. Galbraith was a railroad brakeman on the Michigan Central here from 1919 to the early 1930's, when he transferred to Detroit. He retired in 1958. He is survived by three daughters, one in Lincoln Park, one in Ohio and one at Augusta, California. His wife preceded him in death the year of his retirement.

Mr. Galbraith was in Grayling a couple of years ago and visited with the Martins then.

Mrs. Earl Isenbauer was an overnight guest of her daughter, the Ivan Davis, Jr., family of Clare Saturday and they visited in Mt. Pleasant on Sunday.

Pete Olson attended the ski clinic at Boyne Mountain last week and has received full certification as ski instructor. He expects to instruct at Boyne Highlands when the season begins.

Bert Damsenberger will not be working at Dots Doll House until after the new year.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Koch, Randy and Greg spent the weekend of the 5th in Cadillac, guests of Dr. and Mrs. David Johnson at a dance at Catherline given by the Penguin Club on Saturday evening. The boys enjoyed some skiing while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mings of Grand Ledge visited the George Schaibles, Sr., over the weekend. Mrs. Lucille Hewitt, who has spent several months with her sister, accompanied them back to her home.

Old Pat, the Swing Horse

By Floyd Davis

This was fun night for old Pat as he had a new swingman on route 17. After loading 275 quarts of milk in the wagon, lighting the lanterns on the back of the wagon, putting crushed ice on the milk to keep it cool as this was summer time, the driver climbed into the wagon and with a "giddyup" to Pat, they took off into the night.

It was about three miles to the first delivery on this route, so while Pat was making his way along the streets in a little trot, the new man was busy checking his route log book to see where the milk was to be placed, front, side or back porch, and the amount that each customer ordered.

All of a sudden he looked up from his book and saw the lights of the Dairy he had just left. Pat had taken him in a circle and brought him back without the swingman noticing it.

After starting out again in the right direction, and urging Pat into a faster trot to try and make up for the half hour lost, the time the driver made sure Pat took the right streets by looking at the signs on the street corners with his flashlight.

When this team of "experienced horse, new man" arrived at the first delivery, the milkman filled his hand carriers with eight quarts in each, and started setting them off at the different houses on one street, then he would cut through back yards, and do the same on the next street over where, in front of a certain house, Pat was supposed to be waiting. Not so! This night, he would always be back at a corner waiting as this was the correct procedure, and it of course saved him several blocks of walking during the time.

When he was supposed to go to the middle of a block and turn around in front of a certain house, he would cut it short by a couple houses to save a few more steps. This kept up until the new man thought he had the dumbest horse in the city of Flint, and would never get the route finished, when in reality it was just one of Pat's cunning tricks to test this new guy to see if he could get away from some extra walking.

As this act worked so well, Pat tried others during the night, and on the second trip around the route in the daytime, while the milkman was collecting from customers, Pat took advantage of the beautiful lawn in front of some of the houses on Chevrolet Ave. which is one of the better parts of town, he would pick up the steel drop-weight that was fastened to his bridle by a leather strap, and pull the wagon on the lawn eating the grass, shrubs, and even leaves from lower limbs of some of the trees. Of course he always left them something in exchange, his big hoof-prints, and wagon wheel ruts.

When this pair arrived back at the Dairy three hours late, I'm sure you can guess which one was most tired, it wasn't old Pat, and he didn't have to answer for the complaints that came from the owners of the lawns. Oh no! It wasn't Pat.

Chapter four follows in two weeks, and is about a robber.

See 1965 Session Of State Legislature As A Long, Long One

A long, long session of the 1965 Legislature is almost assured by several factors, not the least of which is the impending state government reorganization.

Odd-year sessions are traditionally longer than those in election years, but the Democratic majority-Republican administration situation makes for an even more intensive fight over reorganization than was previously anticipated.

The 1963 Constitution gave the Legislature until 1966 to set down new government divisions, sharply lessening the number of independent agencies. If this is not done by the lawmakers, it then becomes an executive responsibility of the Governor.

Democratic leaders in the two houses would like nothing more than to draw their own plan for the administration of state government.

To turn this job over to Republican Gov. George Romney could be disastrous to many of the Democratic appointees still holding top-level jobs in various departments to which they were named in the Williams and Swainson administrations.

Considerable time will be needed to accomplish reorganization, however, because the initial recommendations made to the Legislature next year may not meet with Democratic approval.

Joint House - Senate committees have been working on implementation.

Some agencies with Democratic-named chiefs likely would be made sub-divisions of other units if Romney and GOP legislators had their way, but Democratic lawmakers will be out to preserve the high rank of those administrators who share their political persuasion.

DRUNK DRIVERS

Attention must be given to an underlying problem if a major cause of traffic accidents is to be reduced, according to Secretary of State James M. Hare.

Hare notes that it has been estimated that the drinking driver causes up to 75 per cent of all fatalities and personal injury accidents. This includes both the alcoholic and the so-called social drinker.

"In many cases, the real problem of alcoholism and its underlying psychological causes are completely ignored," said Hare. "Perhaps what is necessary is a law which would provide for automatic referral of such a person to an alcoholic-treatment center and a suspension of his license until he is given a clean bill of health."

Tougher laws dealing with drinking drivers are definitely needed in any event, said the Secretary of State.

Hare emphasizes punitive action without treatment of the real problem would be valueless, however. Under present law, a person's license is taken if he is convicted of drunk driving twice in a year, but many get a lesser penalty if they prove a need for the license.

A considerable number of Michigan citizens are affected annually by the drunken driving law. In the first 9 months of this year, Hare's department revoked or suspended 4,635 licenses under this law, and 5,487 persons lost their licenses during all of 1963.

HELP HELPS

School dropouts and other reluctant learners are not an invention of the 20th Century, but communications and other factors have made it seem so.

State School Superintendent Lynn M. Bartlett says citizens just hear more about these youngsters now because today's world no longer provides a place for the person who fails to get an education.

Fishing, Inland Waters

The Conservation Commission, under Act 230, P. A. 1925, as amended, orders that for three years from January first, 1965, it shall be unlawful, in any inland waters of the state (except boundary waters covered in the reciprocal agreement with Wisconsin), to take or possess northern pike or muskellunge from March first to May fourteenth, inclusive, in each year or during the open season to take or possess muskellunge less than thirty-four inches long or more than two muskellunge in one day.

able skills for available jobs are beginning to provide a bridge between the gap opened by changing times and technological advances.

National studies have shown that reluctant learners often make remarkable progress toward the normal level when placed, at an early age, in a favorable environment for mental, emotional and social development, said Bartlett.

Thus, encouraging a positive attitude toward education among so-called culturally deprived youngsters can help produce beneficial results as they progress through the grades.

Some agencies with Democratic-named chiefs likely would be made sub-divisions of other units if Romney and GOP legislators had their way, but Democratic lawmakers will be out to preserve the high rank of those administrators who share their political persuasion.

All-American Gift

Miss Vonda Kay Van Dyke—Miss America of 1965 prepares to present the all-American Christmas gift of 1964, or any other year—a United States Savings Bond. Bonds deck her Christmas tree, but hold no surprises for the recipients since their growth-pattern is well established. The Arizona lovely takes her place as another in a long series of American beauties to advocate Savings Bonds as the all-American Christmas gift.

BITS O' TALK

Mrs. Hurl Deckrow entertained her birthday club Monday night of last week with a social evening. Mrs. Earl Wood was the guest of honor. The hostess baked the birthday cake for Mrs. Wood and presented her with a gift.

ECLIPSE OF MOON DUE FRIDAY NIGHT

ANN ARBOR — A total eclipse of the moon will take place (Dec. 18th), three days before the official beginning of winter, University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh reminds.

The moon will be in a favorable position for observation, says Professor Losh, because at the beginning of the eclipse it will be about 40 degrees above the eastern horizon.

The moon will first touch the earth's shadow at 8 p. m. Soon after, a noticeable dimming at the eastern edge of the moon will show up. The darkened area will gradually spread over the moon's surface until 9:08 p. m., when the moon will be entirely in eclipse.

The mid-eclipse will come at 9:38 p. m., with totality ending at 10:08. It will then take another hour for the moon to leave the shadow completely, Professor Losh says.

During the partial phase, the earth's shadow will appear dark in contrast to the remaining section of the moon. During the total stage, however, the moon will be illuminated by sunlight, which filters through the earth's atmosphere and is refracted into the earth's shadow. The moon will then shine with a dull reddish glow, Professor Losh points out.

Winter will begin in the northern hemisphere at 2:50 p. m. Monday (Dec. 21), the U-M astronomer says. "At this time the sun will arrive at the winter solstice, the most southerly point that it reaches during its apparent yearly journey around the earth."

The northern hemisphere will have its shortest day and longest night, about 9 hours and 15 hours respectively.

Bits O' Talk

Richard Adams underwent several hours of surgery on his hand last week, and expects further surgery in a couple more weeks. His address is Grace Hospital, Ward 9, 4160 John R St., Detroit, Michigan.

Vicki McEvers will be home Friday from Moody Bible Institute to spend some time during the holidays with her brothers Jerry and Ted McEvers and families. Last weekend the Rev. Frinkle and family were guests of the Ted McEvers home.

Bert Dannenberg will not be working at Dots Doll House until after the new year.

C. G. Livingood of South Bend has sent to Arnie Mauren a full page spread on northern Michigan appearing in the South Bend Tribune, in which the Grayling park is mentioned along with some others in the state.

Around fifty U. S. D. A. personnel from the U.P. and northern half of the state held a luncheon meeting at Chief Shoppengons December 9th, lasting until dinner time. The same night about 60 members of the Michigan Licensed Beverage Association enjoyed their Christmas party with cocktails, dinner and dancing afterwards to the music of Arnie Kolles and trio from Houghton Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gezequel spent Monday in Saginaw and continued on to Detroit Tuesday where he entered Ford Hospital.

The Wednesday Bridge Club met last week at Mrs. Frank Bond's home. High scorer was Mrs. Ernest Borchers, second Mrs. Leonard Knibbs, and low Mrs. Dick Dubois. Bonus prizes were won by Mrs. Dale Pettengill and Mrs. Tom Welsh. The group meets next on January 6th at Mrs. Borchers' home.

Bert Dannenberg will not be working at Dots Doll House until after the new year.

Mrs. Seth Chappel and son Dale were in Bay City over the week-end visiting relatives and friends. On their way home Sunday they stopped in West Branch to visit Mrs. Chappel's two sisters.

Weekend guests of the Floyd Millikins were the Lawrence Woods and daughter Elaine of Quincy, who came to attend the Saturday installation at the F. and A. M. in which Floyd was installed as Worshipful Master.

Dave Wyman arrived home last weekend from Houghton Tech, having completed the requirements for his B. S. degree in civil engineering. He is spending Christmas vacation with his parents, the Kenneth Wymans, and then plans to go to work for the state of California.

Mrs. Frank Muth entertained the Past Presidents' Parley with a Christmas party, Dec. 7th at her home. Prizes for cards went to Mrs. Schuyler Gibson and Mrs. Lillian Ryan. Gifts were exchanged and Secret Pals revealed. The hostess served a nice lunch.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank Drs. Henig and Blaha and the hospital staff for their care and kindness, and friends for cards, gifts and visits.

Moose Lodge Activities

On Saturday, Dec. 12th the Pontiac Degree team did a very fine job of enrolling seven new members into the finest fraternal organization in the world. To these new members we say "welcome". A well prepared dinner of Roast Beef and Pork was served by the WOTM. The women received many fine compliments on their meal.

The Governor thanks Art and Velda Stephenson and boys, Butch and Betty Foster, Nellie Jones, Alfred Hanson, also Ray Waite, and Jim Stephan for their hard work in cleaning at the lodge Sunday. A nice dinner at the lodge was also enjoyed by those that were able to help all day.

This Sunday is our Rabbit hunt, so all you rabbit hunting members be at the lodge at 9 a. m. Sunday. Art Stephenson is in charge, and we understand that there will be dogs available and three or four good locations have been selected. It looks like everyone participating should have a good time.

This Saturday, Dec. 19th, will be the Kiddies Christmas party at the lodge, from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. The party is being sponsored jointly by the WOTM and LOOM.

Our next meeting is this Friday, Dec. 18th at 8 p. m. This is also a social night. There will be a short officers' meeting right after the regular meeting. Everyone enjoyed the music by
